Dear Dr. Woodroof,

Thank you for presenting a webinar at our 2008 Hawaiian Electric Company Efficient Electro-Technology Conference and Exposition. Your "Top 10 Profitable Green Strategies" webinar workshop drew the most attendees with standing room only. The attendees were pleased with the information you provided, especially with the website references. This is the first webinar held at our energy expo. Although this was a long distance transmission, your presentation and voice was clear. Overall, the webinar was a success.

In appreciation for sharing your expertise with our customers, we have included a gift with this letter. We hope you enjoy it.

Sincerely,

Dean A. Oshiro
